

Operation Trafficked

It's possible to get away with murder if you kill those already devalued by society. Operation Trafficked is chillingly current.

The murder of a young girl brings together seasoned officers Sgt. Nicholas Myra and Cpl. Gail McNaughton in a Joint Forces Investigation. They dive into the $28 billion dollar business of human trafficking where women and girls are openly sold on the world's markets. They quickly learn prostitution is not the oldest profession but the oldest form of oppression.
