

The Red Floor

PRODUCT
Image
Unavailable

PRODUCT
Image
Unavailable

When 8-year-old Justin Henley, heir to the Henley fortune, drowns, his mother accuses his father of murder.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Ask a question about this book

Authors Kindellan-Sheehan, Sheila

Description

- Vehicule Press
- ISBN - 978-1-55065-315-1
- June 2011
- Trade paperback $18.95

When 8-year-old Justin Henley, heir to the Henley fortune, drowns, his mother accuses his father of murder. A boy who swam like a fish doesn't drown in the shallow end of his own salt water pool. His grandfather uses all his power influence to convict his son-in-law.

Who: Sheila Kindellan-Sheehan

What: "The Red Floor"

When: June 11, 2011 - Noon - 4 P.M.

Where: Chapters Pointe Claire, Qc.

Contact: Vehicule Press - 514 844 7543

Cost: $18.95

Blurb:

(When 8-year-old Justin Henley, heir to the Henley fortune, drowns, his mother accuses his father of murder. A boy who swam like a fish doesn't drown in the shallow end of his own salt water pool. His grandfather uses all his power influence to convict his son-in-law.